

LEADERS CIRCLE

The Leaders Circle is Toronto's ambassador program. Our ambassadors are a network of innovators, researchers and top thinkers whose expertise help bring international meetings to Toronto.

IMPACT OF INTERNATIONAL MEETINGS

The impact of hosting an international meeting in Toronto is significant. By inviting top minds and researchers from around the world to Toronto, it creates a transfer of knowledge that enriches our community and elevates Toronto's economy.

Hosting an international meeting will:

- Showcase your institution on the world stage
- Elevate your research to your global peers
- Create a transfer of knowledge and investment
- Lead to the advancement of key sector industries/ (i.e. life sciences or technology)
- Leave long-term legacies in the community and for future generations

LEADERS CIRCLE RESEARCH GRANT

The Leaders Circle recognizes the importance of innovative research and aims to contribute to furthering the knowledge wealth in Toronto and Canada, by offering a grant to be used to advance expertise in different fields.

DID YOU KNOW?

Approximately 70% of international congresses require participation from the Canadian member organization and/or a local leader who is an expert in that field in order to submit a bid.

Here's how to participate:

- Host Events
Host your international association's meeting in Toronto.
- Make Connections
Make meaningful connections with other experts in your field or industry.
- Education
Attend educational workshops about hosting conferences.
